

Swami Vivekananda remembered at edu institutes

AMBALA, JANUARY 11

A one-day extension lecture on 'Swami Vivekananda: Life, philosophy and contribution' was organised at Gandhi Memorial National College, Ambala Cantonment, on the eve of the 163rd birth anniversary of the spiritual leader (National Youth Day).

Principal Rohit Dutt said by adopting his thoughts, one could play an important role in building a prosperous India.

Meanwhile, the day was also celebrated at Indira Gandhi National College, Ladwa, where a lecture on 'Empowering youth, Viksit Bharat' was organised. Principal Kushal Pal urged everyone to draw lessons from the leader in their lives.

On the occasion, students and NCC cadets participated in a slogan-writing competition. In the contest, NCC cadet Anmol secured the first prize, followed by Palak and Manjeet, who won the second and third prizes, respectively. — TNS
